Mark Schneider
Deputy Assistant
State Department

Dear Mark:

I enclose for your information a note of those cases of disappearance which we have had reported to us from Argentina for the period 1st of August to 16th of September 1979. Since this was the time immediately before and during the visit of the Inter American Commission of Human Rights it has particular significance.

Good wishes,

Yours,

Stephanie

Amnesty International is a worldwide human rights movement which works impartially for the release of prisoners of conscience, men and women detained anywhere for their beliefs, color, ethnic origin, sex, religion or language, provided they have neither used nor advocated violence. Amnesty International opposes torture and the death penalty in all cases without reservation and advocates fair and prompt trials for all political prisoners. Amnesty International is independent of all governments, political factions, ideologies, economic interests and religious creeds. It has consultative status with the United Nations (ECOSOC), UNESCO and the Council of Europe, has cooperative relations with the Organization of African Unity (Bureau for the Placement and Education of African Refugees). Amnesty International was the recipient of the 1977 Nobel Prize for Peace.
